Lawyer Jill Gets Dog Namesake

Have You Ever Named Your Dog After Your Attorney?

Meet Crain Caton & James's shareholder, Jill Panagos, who recently learned her long-time client, Ed Shinn and his wife Shann, named their beloved new baby Corgi, Jill! Ed is the President and founder of Crossroads Insurance Recovery Advocates, LLC and thinks he may be the first client ever to name a beloved pet after a lawyer.

Jill, the lawyer, is flattered! "When you think of it, most people name their pets after things, people, experiences or places meaning a lot to them and lawyers are typically not in this group," observes Jill. In celebration, lawyer Jill sent little Jill a My Pillow dog bed!

Research collected by the website DailyPuppy confirms lawyer Jill and little Jill have a lot in common. Both are extremely faithful, spirited, pleasant, feisty, extremely bright, cute, natural herders, adventurous and serious about protection of others.
