Overview

Sarah Patel Pacheco represents clients in matters of fiduciary litigation, probate, trust and guardianship and general litigation. Sarah's practice focus is on representing fiduciaries and beneficiaries in trial and appellate courts in the State of Texas in matters relating to probate and trust administration and litigation. Her extensive experience includes will contests, will and trust interpretation issues, accounting and administration issues, prosecution and defense of various fiduciary claims, and representation of creditors in probate and trust proceedings.

She works with applicants and contestants in guardianship proceedings, representing personal representatives, trustees, beneficiaries, and guardians in matters relating to the administration of estates, trusts, and guardianships.

Sarah is Board Certified in Estate Planning and Probate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Sarah is the co-author of three legal treatises, serves on the Legal Specialization Estate Planning and Probate Commission, is a frequent speaker and has been repeatedly recognized for her expertise and professionalism. Some of her awards include being named as one of the Top 50 Women Attorneys in Texas, Texas Super Lawyers lists (Thomson Reuters) 2021, 2020, 2018, 2017, 2008 and 2006, being selected to the 2004-2021 Texas Super Lawyers
